

Some Kinds of Love

Eros, Agape, and Unconditional Positive Regard

A one-day workshop in person (Brighton) and online with

Manu Bazzano

Sunday 3 April 2022 10am-5pm

Eros challenges notions of identity and invites transformation.

Agape is unconditional positive regard – the gift of the host to the guest.

Drawing on Ovid, Gillian Rose, Judith Butler, and on innovative aspects of contemporary psychotherapy, this workshop is suitable to artists, experienced therapists as well as trainees, and anyone interested in human development.

A 6-hour CPD certificate will be issued to participants.

Cost £85 before 28 February, £105 after

To book and for more details email loveandpsychotherapy@gmail.com

Dr Manu Bazzano is an author, psychotherapist/supervisor and internationally recognized lecturer and facilitator.

He has background in philosophy and rock music.

His latest book is Nietzsche and Psychotherapy (Routledge, 2019).

Subversion and Desire (Routledge) will come out in October 2022.

www.manubazzano.com